Remembering our servicemen

THERE ARE YOUNG JEWISH MEN AND WOMEN serving our country in the various branches of the American Armed Forces. It is now time that we recognize them and their loneliness and wish them only the best future and a Happy New Year in whatever circumstances they are in. Our Jewish military personnel deserve to be remembered.

Whatever you do or believe, don't hold back your support for all our individual troops, and as Jews, we must focus in on Jewish souls, wherever they are.

All you have to do is write a card or letter (kids can draw pictures), put a stamp on it and mail it.

Call Larry Levine at: 1-917-412-8670 or e-mail him at ZEIDIONE@MSN.COM and he will give you the name, military address and in some cases, an e-mail address, and all mailing instructions.
